

Bobby Christian To Play Homecoming STUFF

Vol. 20

St. Joseph's College, Collegeville, Indiana, October 4, 1956

No. 1

New Enrollment Reaches Peak of 830; Bishop Carberry Celebrates Mass

For the fourth straight year the enrollment at St. Joseph's College reached an all-time high when 830 students attended classes Friday, Sept. 14. Last year the figure was 804.

Because this year's sophomore class returned in greater numbers than ever before, a slash in the freshmen enrollment of more than 100 was necessitated. Consequently new students, including freshmen and transfers from other colleges, number some 300 compared to 411 last year.

Bishop Carberry Says Mass

The record total includes 80 veterans, 40 seminarians and 30 married students.

St. Joseph's officially opened its 66th year Thursday night (Sept. 13) with a Pontifical High Mass in the college fieldhouse. The celebrant was Bishop John J. Carberry, recently named Coadjutor-Bishop with the right of succession to Bishop John G. Bennett of the Diocese of Lafayette in Indiana.

Bishop Carberry welcomed the students to the campus and advised them to "give consideration to the place of the Holy Spirit in your individual lives."

"Spirit and Student"

He delivered the message that the Holy Spirit is pouring forth inspirations within them continually during their studies, but that these thoughts will not be realized

Expect 56 Phase In Late October

John White, editor of the St. Joe yearbook, PHASE, has announced that the 1956 books are expected to arrive on campus about Oct. 26. This delivery will allow many of the books to be given to former students down for the Homecoming weekend. The grads of 56 will already have received their copies by mail by that date.

Copies will be available to anyone on campus who attended either semester of the last school year. But former students will have to request that their books be sent to them and these requests must be in writing.

At an editorial meeting on Sept. 27, White, together with Fr. James Hinton, revealed the staff for the 1957 yearbook. Mike Hardin, a junior from Indianapolis, will remain as copy editor but will also hold the position of assistant editor.

In the role of layout editor is Joe Borgra, a sophomore from Joliet, Illinois. Another sophomore from Joliet, Dave Carey, will handle the job of sports editor. As of yet, the position of art and

Band Director Initiates Plans For 3 Groups

1956 marks the beginning of a new idea in the use of musical talents at Saint Joseph's College. Mr. Bernard E. Qubeck, St. Joe's Band Director reports that by the end of the 1956-57 school year, St. Joseph's will have utilized every willing musician in either the varsity band, marching band, or concert band.

The varsity band is a small compact unit that may be used at pep rallies, or transported to out-of-town games with either the football or basketball teams. The varsity band is a utility group—that is highly versatile. The repertoire will run the gamut from Bach to Boogie, anything that will help the morale of the student body and encourage the teams of St. Joseph's.

The marching band will make its appearance just as soon as new uniforms are purchased and tailored. St. Joseph's marching band will specialize in precision maneuvers. A swift drum-beat and a snappy step will announce the appearance of the St. Joseph's marching band.

The symphonic concert band will be expected to add to the cultural development of the serious student of St. Joseph's. Through this group the music of the great masters, past and present, will be heard from the stage of our auditorium. Only the advanced musicians from the varsity and marching bands will appear with the symphonic concert band.

The social side of student life will be catered to by the small "Combo" and the dance band made up from the members of the music department.

College Spends $70,000 To Begin Repairs Program

by Jim Station

Over $70,000 has been spent by St. Joseph's in repairs since last June. The improvements made on the campus were the start of a five-year remodeling plan.

Three main projects are planned for execution during the next nine months. They include: a campus lighting system for the roads; ventilation of the Recreation Hall; and campus landscaping. The latter project is under the direction of Frs. Mark Dreiling and Charles Rueve.

"Hall A Year" Plan

In a plan which includes the renovation of one residence hall each year, Seifert Hall was painted and equipped with new entrance doors. Next year Merlini Hall will receive much the same treatment as well as new carpentry and plumbing work.

These jobs are handled by the college's own construction crews and are done for just the cost of materials.

Drexel Hall, in a project apart from the above-mentioned program, was equipped with a new oil-fired boiler and hot water system. The cost of the job was $3700.

Install 265 Mail Boxes

Health center improvements were also made over the summer and the post office was expanded. About 265 more mail boxes were

Pianists To Open Concert Series At St. Joseph's

Oct. 22 will mark the opening of the concert season here at St. Joe.

The season will be opened by the duo-pianists Melvin Stocker and Norman Horowitz. Mr. Stocker and Mr. Horowitz joined forces in 1951 after very successful careers as individual performers. Now, as a duo, they have attained the praise and admiration of music critics throughout both Canada and the United States.

Last year alone they were featured in 84 performances at the famed Radio City Music Hall; and this year they are being heard from coast to coast in performances of the best duo-piano literature. Their concert at St. Joe will feature the music of Bach, Chopin, Gershwin, Milhaud, and Strauss.

Then on Nov. 29, the Paris Ballet of Lyette Darsonval will arrive on campus to feature the ballet masterpieces of Chopin, Debussy, Liszt, Mozart, Tchaikowski, and Sibelius. This will be the first time in America for this ballet company which has won acclaim in Europe, Africa, Asia, and South America.

Feb. 27 will be the day the Don Cossack Chorus and Dancers perform here. The chorus will be conducted by Serge Jaroff and will feature soldier songs, "satire, whistles, and shouts."

The dancers feature gymnastics that "defy the laws of gravity." Another concert is expected sometime in the second semester but as of now it is only tentative.

Announce Dance Theme To Be "Returning Prince"

by Dave Carey

Bobby Christian and his band will be featured at this year's annual Homecoming dance on Oct. 27. Christian, who became notably popular mainly for his recent hit of "Grasshopper Jump," has worked with all of the major networks and has performed a number of times in Chicago.

Theme of this year's dance will be "The Returning Prince," according to chairman Bob Stewart. Scenes depicting the prince's part in "Snow White," "Sleeping Beauty," and "Cinderella" will head the decorations scheme. Assistant chairman Al Geimer was the originator of the theme.

To Pick Queen

Queen of the Homecoming will be chosen from the dates of students.

The girl who is to reign over the week-end activities will be selected by a committee in the Rec Hall between 10 a.m. and 12 noon Saturday morning.

Any student who wishes to have his date made eligible for queen is expected to be present with her in the Rec Hall at that time. The queen will then be crowned at half time ceremonies of the football game.

Pep Rally To Open Week-end

A pep rally will open the week-end on Friday evening at 7:30 in the college auditorium. This will be followed by an informal dance in the Rec Hall.

Saturday's activities will officially begin with the Evansville football game at 2 p.m. Then from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. the Homecoming dance will be held in the fieldhouse. A Revels dance will follow in the Rec Hall until 3:30 a.m.

Sales Begin Oct. 8

Tickets for the Homecoming dance will be $4 per couple, and for the Revels, $2. Homecoming dance tickets will be sold beginning Monday, Oct. 8.

The sale of Revels tickets will begin on Oct. 15. The first day sales will be open only to seniors, the second day to seniors, juniors, and sophomores, and the third day to all students.

Bentson Heads Decorations

Other chairmen of the committees are: decorations, Ray Bentson; tickets, Bill Riffe and Chuck Raih; housing, Ed Tomaszewski and John Whalen; and publicity, Dave Carey.

Rev. Mr. Lloyd Lee, faculty advisor, and Tom Doherty, sophomore class president, have also helped on the initial plans for the Homecoming weekend.

All students are requested to make their weekend housing accommodations through the housing committee.

Football Players, Parents honored On Dad's Day

Approximately 25 fathers of the football team members took part in the annual Dad's Day festivities last Saturday.

The day started at 9:30 with a Mass for the players and their parents. After this there was a breakfast for the players and their dads in the cafeteria, while the mothers were entertained by a breakfast in Merlini Lounge. The wives of the football coaches were the hostesses.

Before the game, the Dads were invited to the chalk talk usually given to the players alone. The Dads were introduced to the crowd before the game and sat together as a group during the game.

Bill Becker Killed In Auto Accident

Bill Becker, a St. Joseph's senior, was killed and four other students injured in an automobile accident on Sept. 21.

The injured included Ron Dohr, who suffered severe head lacerations, Earl Fortin, Ed Cox, and Bob Auer, all of whom received less serious head lacerations.

Dohr, whose condition had been termed as "critical," was kept at the county hospital in Monticello while the other three seniors were back on campus late Friday, Sept. 21. He was released from the hospital last Saturday.

The accident occurred when the five students were returning to the campus from Monon. Fortin, the driver, lost control of the car and it careened off the road.

Becker, Dohr, and Cox were thrown from the automobile, which had turned over. Fortin was able to go for help and the injured were rushed to the Monticello hospital.

Funeral services were held for Becker at his home in Ft. Wayne on Monday, Sept. 24. Glen Murphy, senior class president, Rich Flynn, and the Ft. Wayne seniors represented the student body at the funeral.

Bill Becker

Mundelein and Xavier girls were given some extra entertainment Saturday, Sept. 22, when St. Joe freshmen staged a tug-of-war across the campus pond. Sporting spirit got the best of the frosh when the rope broke, and they leaped into the water anyway.

It's Good To Be Back Hope to Cut Injuries Though Work Begins In Intramural Ball

The opening of school is like no other time of the year. Returning to or coming for the first time to Collegeville, either hardened or softened by three months summer vacation, is an unique feeling. You may have thought, upon leaving for home last May, that you had every detail of the campus etched in your mind. But things change!

Over the summer, the rooms in Seifert were repainted, the roads were widened and blacktopped, the post office was enlarged, and there's even a new roof on the fieldhouse.

And even the places that haven't changed physically have somehow dimmed during the summer months, and it's pleasant renewing acquaintances.

There's the Ree Hall, a relaxing place to go for a cup of coffee after an eight o'clock class, or after a test. Brother John has moved out of the cubbyhole beside the fountain to a new and larger office.

Take a walk down the administration building and you'll see a lot of familiar faces, but a few new ones too, like Fr. Lefko.

And of course a spot that literally everyone hits during the first two or three days on campus is the bookstore. It's surprising how quickly a twenty dollar bill can disappear here. No trouble at all!

It doesn't take long to get in the swing of college life. Classes opened Sept. 15; there was the usual well-ordered confusion, and the eternal syllabus. After classes met for three or four sessions, an inevitable stop for most was the library.

But it wasn't all studies and work. A visit from the girls of Mundelein and Xavier provided a pleasant refresher the next weekend.

So all in all, it's good to be back.

Dave Bauer

In spite of the many complaints that were heard from various groups of the student body, intramural football has been altered this year. This action was taken only after the intramural officials had given the matter much thought.

The main change made in the way the game will be played, and the change which brought forth the most jeers from the players, was that limiting the number of players on the field at one time from nine to seven. The reason for this limited number is, of course, to cut down on injuries.

Last year numerous injuries were incurred by players, some of them quite serious in their nature. One player, a veteran attending school on the G.I. Bill, fell and broke his ankle. In addition to causing serious pain and inconvenience to the student, the injury caused him quite a bit of financial strain. The government doesn't take such injuries into consideration when they make out their monthly veteran-schooling checks.

Another injury which proved to be quite serious was caused by a flying elbow. Whether intended or not, the elbow did considerable damage to a student's mouth. Luckily he managed to walk away with his brains intact and all of his teeth in his mouth.

There were quite a few more injuries as a result of the rough football played last year, though most of them were not as serious as the two mentioned above. The health center became so disgusted at having to patch up damaged intramural players, that this year it will close at 3:30 in the afternoon to avoid the post-game rush.

What Do You Think?

Elvis Presley's meteoric rise to recording stardom has developed into a very controversial subject. Do you consider him a good artist or "just a flash in the pan?"

BRUCE HORACEK, freshman, Ludington, Mich. Elvis Presley! When a teenager mentions "Rock and Roll" surely, his name is first on the list. Now comes the question whether his idol's rise to fame is due to pure talent. Although anyone who can stand before a microphone, recording a song, or before a screaming mob of fans, must have at least a little talent, I think his rise to fame is due to an appeal to a craze started by someone else.

Although the lyrics and the songs themselves are good, his accompanying gestures are strictly unique, but different. Although his better songs such as: "Don't Be Cruel," "Hound Dog," and "I Want You, I Need You, I Love You" have gained national attention, and have sold more than 4 million copies, they'll never last as standards through the years.

I personally like most of his records, but not just because he sings them.

JOHN BISHOP, freshman, Chicago, Ill. In my opinion Elvis Presley is an artist in his particular field of entertainment. His type of entertainment would be classified to the "Rock and Roll," which seems to be here to stay.

Personally I do not like him. His type of singing and music does not appeal to my musical appreciation. I do believe that even though he has had many successive hits, he is only a present fad. Before him there were others who rose to stardom only to be topped by another so-called singing enthusiast of great talent.

PAUL STUCKER, sophomore, Chicago, Ill. Young girls have for quite a while spent their spare time swooning over popular male singers. To blame Elvis because the present crop of girls like him is unjust, since I remember when the craze was Frank Sinatra. And as far as that goes, I agree he does sing idiotic songs such as "Hound Dog," but I don't think Frankie Laine's "Wild Goose" was any less idiotic.

JAMES MCGOWAN, sophomore, Paducah, Ky. Elvis is, in my opinion, not only a good artist but also a good entertainer. Although I think little of his personality he was undoubtedly the push rhythm and blues needed for its conquest of the teenage set.

Elvis a flash in the pan? I would prefer to remain silent on that point. Question should be whether Elvis can adopt himself to any new trend which may come along.

CHUCK VIETZEN, senior, Oak Park, Ill. I think Mr. Presley's pan flashed in front of the entertainment field just as a few people were looking for a cheap thrill. He is a good artist, if you call vulgarity artistic. Give him a little time and he will fade away just as fast as his gyrating predecessors.

DAN FENKER and JIM NOLL, seniors, Fort Wayne, Ind. Art Linkletter best describes Elvis and his admirers when he said, "All Elvis' fans should form a big club and hit themselves over the head with it." We don't dig that hillbilly no how!

Xavier Hall Plays Important Roll In Life of Collegeville Seminarian

by Harry Allagrey

Situated on the southeast side of the Collegeville campus is Xavier Hall, the residence hall of the Precious Blood seminarians. This year the seminarians number 41, three less than the group which began the first semester last year.

The seminarian group is composed of boys from several different states—North Dakota and Kansas, Illinois, Indiana, and Ohio, Pennsylvania and New Jersey, to mention but a few. Approximately two-thirds of the present 41 seminarians graduated from Brunnerdale Seminary, the Precious Blood Society's minor seminary. The remainder of the boys began their seminary studies right here at St. Joe.

St. Joseph's Half-Way Point

The two years which the seminarian spends here at College is considered the "half-way" mark on the road to the priesthood. Upon leaving College, the seminarian spends one year at the Novitiate in Burkettsville, Ohio. His last six years, then, before ordination are spent at St. Charles Major Seminary, Carthage, Ohio, as is also the year following ordination.

In many respects the seminarian's life here at College is similar to that of the lay student. Then, again, in many ways it is different. The seminarian is given a college education much like that of the ordinary college student. Just as the lay student's studies are directed toward one particular field in which he will major—biology, education, journalism—so also is the seminarian's education pointed toward a particular field, philosophy and eventually theology.

Life Includes Song, Trade

Besides the usual educational training, the seminarian has some added opportunities. By participation in choir and schola (a group of proficient Gregorian Chant singers) he is trained to sing, a factor which will be so important in his later priestly life.

He also makes a study of liturgical functions, since participation in them is part of his daily life.

There is also the opportunity of learning one or several trades through his daily work schedule—painting, carpentry, plumbing, tailoring, secretarial work, lawn work—trades which will aid him in parish work later on.

Sponsor IM Program

In between the moments of prayer, study, and manual labor the seminarian finds time for extra-curricular activity. He can participate in a regular sports schedule during the major seasons of football, basketball, and baseball and in such other outdoor sports as softball, tennis, swimming, and hockey.

For inside recreation and relaxation the seminarian has the benefit of high fidelity recorded music, radio, and also a good supply of current periodicals and papers, both religious and secular.

One of the biggest extra-curricular activities in Xavier Hall is participation in the work of the Dwenger Mission Unit. The Unit is a mission organization, affiliated with the National Catholic Mission Crusade, having six or seven branch clubs. These branch clubs are of two kinds—study clubs and work clubs.

The study clubs have as their object the close investigation of a particular field, such as the liturgy, the life of some saint, or some big world problem. The activity of the work clubs consists in such things as sorting stamps, collecting and sending material to foreign missions, making rosaries for the missions.

Prayer Most Important

Far surpassing any of the above-mentioned activities of a seminarian's life is that of prayer. With prayer the seminarian begins his day; with prayer he pauses at noon; with prayer he lays down to sleep. He has the advantage of offering with the priest each and every day of his life the Holy Mass and the even greater advantage of receiving Communion daily.

Then there are the benefits derived from his hours of meditation and spiritual reading, his confessions, and his days set aside for recollection. The seminarian also has the privilege of wearing as a regular "uniform" the cassock, a sign of his total dedication to the service of the Church.

In a good many of the phases of life here on St. Joe's campus the seminarian's life may be compared with that of any regular college student. The other activities of seminary life that differ from those of the lay student are purposely supplied in the seminarian's curriculum to prepare him for his ministry in the Church and in the Society of the Precious Blood.

October is the month of the Holy Rosary. The rosary will be said each evening at 6:30 in the chapel. All students are urged to attend.

St. Joe Names Fr. Lefko New College Treasurer

A figure familiar to hundreds of students over the past 10 years is gone from the St. Joe campus.

Fr. Joseph A. Otte resigned from the treasurership of the college last June and left the college on an extended leave of absence. A few days after his resignation Fr. John M. Lefko was made the new treasurer.

Fr. Otte Bothered by Ulcers

Fr. Otte asked to be relieved of his position because of ill health. For the last year he had been bothered by ulcers. Finally, in late 1955 he underwent a major surgical operation; when he failed to respond satisfactorily after the operation, his doctor ordered a prolonged rest.

Many students are already familiar with the new treasurer Fr. Lefko in another role: that of chairman of the St. Joseph's College Foundation, where he had served since he came to the college in August of 1953. As chairman of the Foundation he had been engaged in alumni and public relations work for the last three years.

Found Numerous Projects

In this capacity he started and directed the Fund-Raising Workshop which has been held at Collegeville the last two years; founded and still directs Today's Parents, a new child-parent publication, directed the fund drive in the Lafayette diocese two years ago for the new Bennett Hall on campus; instituted the annual Alumni Communion Breakfast; and set up a Faculty Speakers Bureau here at the college.

Fr. Otte was born in Cincinnati; Fr. Lefko on New York's Lower East Side. Both were ordained in 1938 at St. Charles Seminary, Carthage, Ohio.

Fr. Lefko Active Since 1938

After ordination Fr. Lefko went to St. John's parish in Whiting, Ind., where he served for the next 15 years, the last eight of those as pastor. While pastor he was responsible for a large development program at St. John's, chief of which was the construction of a million-dollar school and parochial center.

He was also a member of the Hammond City Planning Commission for six years. And it was thru his idea that the National Catholic Building Convention and Exposition was held in Chicago in 1948 and 1949.

Fr. Otte, on the other hand, after doing graduate work at the University of Michigan and winning a Master of Business Administration degree, joined the faculty in 1942, where he taught until this year. He was Associate Professor of Accounting. Fr. Otte became treasurer of the college in July, 1946.

O'Brien Stands Out Of 41 St. Joe Students On New Dean's List

Forty-one returning students gained Dean's List honors for the grading period ending last June.

Outstanding on the List was junior Jim O'Brien, who has had indexes of 3.8, 4.0, 4.0, and 4.0 for the last two years.

Other students on the List include:

Seniors: Tom Alter, Dick Dietzen, Bob Gasior, Ron Keller, Tom Kinstle, Jim Kubacki, Bill Neville, Cliff Robinson, and George Saliga.

The Dean's List was originated in 1953 when it took the place of the honor roll, which was then in effect. Students who, at the end of any grading period, have earned a scholastic index of 3.5 or better are placed on the Dean's List.

They are excused from the requirements of the cut system for the following grading period unless the instructor rules otherwise. Students are, however, expected to be present for all announced tests. If at any time during the grading period it becomes evident that excessive absence from class is endangering the student's progress, the Dean has the right to revoke the privilege.

Fr. Shea Accepts Athletic Post

Fr. Donald Shea, assistant professor of history, is the new SJC Director of Athletics. Fr. Shea, whose appointment became effective last June, succeeds Fr. Joseph Smolar, who acted as temporary athletic director last year. Fr. Smolar continues as the Director of Student Affairs.

A native of Maywood, Ill., Fr. Shea was born in 1925. He first came to St. Joseph's in 1947, where he taught history as a layman until 1949, after receiving his M.A. from the University of Michigan.

In September of 1949 he entered the Society of the Precious Blood. After his ordination to the priesthood in 1953, he pursued his Ph.D. studies at Loyola University in Chicago, and rejoined the St. Joe faculty last September.

$20,000 Grant To Dr. Barton For Biological Research Work

Dr. Jay Barton

Dr. Jay Barton has applied for and received a grant of $20,000 from the National Science Foundation for carrying out a biological research project. The project is entitled "Nucleoprotein complexes, with special reference to the insoluble proteins of the cell nuclei."

Dr. Barton had worked on this project at the Marine Biological Laboratories at Woods Hole, Mass., and at Columbia University before coming to St. Joseph's.

Project Concerns Heredity

In 1952, working under a grant from the Public Health Service, he isolated and identified a previously unsuspected type of nucleic acid in the nuclei of living cells, thereby establishing a new clue to the mechanism of heredity. His current project is a further research based upon his findings at Columbia.

Biologists agree that the cell's nucleus, which contains the genes or the heredity material, determines or controls the activity of the rest of the cell. What Dr. Barton proposes to do in his research is to ascertain, if possible, the exact nature of this link between nucleus and the rest of the cell—as he calls it, "the information transmission system."

"Just how does the nucleus pass on its information concerning hereditary factors to the surrounding cytoplasm?"

Comes To St. Joe in 1955

Dr. Barton was born in Chicago in 1922. He is married and has six children. From 1943 to 1946 he served with the Army in the Pacific area. Dr. Barton received his Ph.D. from the University of Missouri in 1951.

While studying for his degree and thereafter Dr. Barton held a scholarship and three fellowships. Appointed to the Department of Zoology at Columbia in 1950, he served there as instructor and assistant professor until 1955. He was appointed assistant professor in the Department of Biology at St. Joseph's in September, 1955.

Continues Project on Campus

Dr. Barton will carry out his project here on the campus. In line with its policy of encouraging scholarship and research, the college has built and equipped a research laboratory in the Science Building for Dr. Barton's use.

The National Science Foundation, from which Dr. Barton received his grant, is a government-supported agency in Washington, D. C., composed of eminent scientists.

It was established in 1950 to promote the progress of science. One of the agency's aims is to sponsor and support basic scientific research.

Revise Program To Add Spirit To Pep Rallies

by Ray Malik

Sirens screaming, torches burning, spotlights shining, the band playing, banners waving, the coach speaking, and the crowd yelling are all the ingredients going into the 1956 version of the Puma pep rallies.

With Fr. Donald Shea, Mr. Ralph Cappuccilli and Mr. Bernard Qubeck supplying the ideas, along with the Student Council's and the cheerleader's aid, this year's rallies have been instrumental in getting the students' spirits up for the crucial games thus far played.

Bauer Succeeds As Staff Editor

Sophomore Dave Bauer has been appointed the new editor of STUFF by moderator Fr. James Hinton.

Bauer succeeds Tom Mahoney, a junior, who resigned from the position last May.

Another addition to the staff is that of Dave Carey as sports editor. Carey will fill the post vacated by Tom Phillipp, who is continuing his engineering program at Purdue University this year.

St. Joseph's Appoints Halleck, Halas to Board of Lay Trustees

Charles Halleck

The Hon. Charles Halleck, Congressman from Indiana, and George S. Halas, owner and long-time coach of the Chicago Bears Football Club, have accepted appointments as members of the Board of Lay Trustees of the college.

Mr. Halleck is a graduate of Indiana University, where he received an A.B. degree in 1922, and an LL.B. degree in 1924. Last year at commencement, St. Joseph's conferred on him an honorary LL.D. degree in recognition of his long and active friendship for the college and of his many years of service to the state and to the country.

Joins Congress in 1935

A veteran of World War One, Mr. Halleck was admitted to the Indiana bar in 1924. The same year he was elected prosecuting attorney of the Jasper-Newton circuit, a position to which he was re-elected four times.

First sent to the Congress by a special election in 1935, Mr. Halleck has represented the Second Indiana District since that time. He was House majority leader in the 80th and 83rd Congress.

Mr. Halleck and his wife, the former Miss Blanche White of Indianapolis, have always kept their home in Rensselaer.

Mr. Halas, whose football team has used the college's facilities as their training camp for the past 12 years, is a native of Chicago. He is a graduate of the University of Illinois, where he majored in Civil Engineering.

Coaches Bears for 28 Years

A veteran of both World Wars, Mr. Halas completed his military career in 1946 as a Navy captain. With the exception of six seasons, he has coached the Bears since their organization in 1921, resigning from the post only last January.

Long active in various educational and philanthropic enterprises, Mr. Halas is also president of May and Halas, Inc., Halas and Keefe, Inc., Television Productions, Inc., and a director of Chicago Park Fair, Inc.

His appointment as lay trustee, with that of Congressman Halleck, brings to a total of sixteen the members of the board.

CSPA Awards Measure Rating Of All-Catholic

MEASURE, the college literary magazine, has been rated All-Catholic for the 1955-56 school year by the Catholic School Press Association.

It is the second year in succession that the magazine has been awarded the honor since joining the journalism association. Joe Barnett, who graduated last June, served as editor both years.

MEASURE achieved its All-Catholic rating by amassing 910 of a possible 1000 points. The organization judged the magazine especially excellent in regard to its Catholicity, service to the school and student body, typography and makeup, and art work.

The title All-Catholic is an indication that, according to the judges, a publication is effectively furthering the religious and intellectual purposes of the school.

Fr. Alvin H. Druhman is moderator of MEASURE and Cyril Gulassa is this year's editor.

Glee Club Open Singing Season

by Rich Flashing

Sept. 18 the Singing Seventeen, under the direction of Fr. Lawrence Heiman, opened their 1956 season by giving a short concert for the Automobile Dealer's Association at the Curtis Creek Country Club.

The members of the Singing Seventeen for this initial concert consisted entirely of old members. This was imperative as the Singing Seventeen traditionally are made up of the best voices in the ensemble. The group will be announced in the next issue of STUFF.

Admit 30 New Members

Try-outs for the glee club were held almost daily from Sept. 10 to 20. Of the overflowing number of applicants, 25 were admitted status. Of this number several have appeared as soloists in previous work.

On Sept. 20 the club held its first meeting and rehearsal of the year. At the business meeting of the regular members Donald Allwein, John DeLaurentis, and John Tobin were re-admitted to the ranks. Also, Urban Thobe was elected secretary-treasurer to take

Sanguinists Plan To Reorganize Holy Name

The Sanguinist Club, the Catholic Organization on St. Joseph's campus, held its first regular meeting for new members Wednesday, Oct. 3.

A member introduced to prospective members the club's version of the Young Catholic Students Organization's approach to Catholic Action. Catholic Action refers to spiritual development of the individual through works under the supervision of the bishop.

Holds Study Weekends

In the name of Catholic Action the club has held study weekends at which students from St. Joseph's and surrounding colleges discussed and offered solutions to problems relating to students' needs. The club helped raise funds for a statue of St. Joseph to be placed between Noll and Bennett halls.

Beginning last year the group initiated a ride bureau to aid weekend travelers. The bureau is functioning again this year.

Plan Revival of Holy Name

Possible activities this semester include an information forum incorporating student participation and a reorganization of the Holy Name Society. Next semester the group tentatively plans to hold another study weekend and possibly another forum. The outcome of the plans depends a great deal on the interest and effort of new members.

Plan 'Twelve Angry Men' As CP's Fall Production

by Greg Mahoney

St. Joseph's oldest extracurricular society, the Columbian Players, enters into its 64th year this semester.

The club's activities for the first semester include trips to view out-of-town plays, the presentation of its own fall play, and a one-act play contest with other Indiana colleges.

Plan "Twelve Angry Men"

A group will travel to Chicago, Oct. 7, to see the Studebaker Theatre's production of "Androcles and the Lion." The fall play, given the first week before Thanksgiving, will this year be "Twelve Angry Men."

The one-act play contest will be held later in the semester at St. Mary's of Notre Dame.

Participate in Pep Rallies

Aside from its usual dramatic activities, the Columbian Players will also take part in all the pep rallies. At the Dad's Dad game, Sept. 29, the group staged a small skit in connection with the school band.

Student Council Restricts Revels To 160 Couples

by Gerald McInerney

By unanimous vote, the Student Council has restricted the number of tickets which can be sold for the Revels on Oct. 27, Homecoming, to 160.

The reason given for the limited sale of Revels tickets was that the Recreation Hall has not adequate space for more than that number of couples. The Homecoming dance, however, which will be held in the Field House, has no limit on the number of couples which may attend.

The Dance Committee announced the plans for two mixers and requested approval of three additional members. The names of Jack Galvin, Jim Station, and Chuck Lancaster were presented to the Council and approved without debate.

The Council also discussed the possibility of purchasing a false ceiling to be used in the field house for dances. It was noted that the expense of creating the desired effect of a low ceiling for the dances was too costly and that the purchase of a reusable ceiling would offset that expense so that the funds could be diverted to a more useful purpose.

After much discussion on the matter, the Council appointed a special committee comprised of John Bian and Glenn Murphy to investigate this possible purchase. The report is due at the next meeting of the Council.

Chairman Rich Flynn, in presenting his Scholastic Committee Report, noted that nothing could be done to remove Social Science 40, Catholic Social Principles, from the list of subjects required for graduation. However, the dean of the college did make a concession in that any senior due to graduate in June could apply for a waiver of the course if he was unable to fit it into his schedule. The final decision on the matter was placed with the Dean.

A discussion was held concerning the delay in obtaining the college yearbook. John White, the editor of PHASE, came before the Council and gave the reasons for this year's delay. He also expressed the hope that the edition would reach the campus by October 27.

The Columbian Players has long given the more dramatic-minded members of the student body the opportunity to demonstrate their acting talents. Under the supervision of its faculty director, Mr. Ralph M. Cappuccilli, assistant professor of speech and dramatics, the group presents well-known plays, builds its own stage settings, and handles all lighting equipment and makeup.

Rezek Heads Group

This year's club officers, elected before the close of school last spring are Dick Rezek of Berwyn, Ill., president; Bernie Balas of Gary, Ind., vice-president; and Ray Malik of Cleveland, Ohio, secretary.

New members to the Columbian Players are admitted on a probationary basis for the first semester. At the beginning of the second semester, they are voted into the society by the other members on the basis of active participation within the group.

Profs Handle Pep Rally Ideas

So far the sessions have been held outside, drawing many students to the outdoor platform situated in back of science hall. Freshmen, marching and carrying victory banners, predominated the scene for the very first rally held in conjunction with the Xavier game.

At this rally, the new pep band was introduced and supplied the music for the festivities. The members of the 1956 Puma football team were individually presented to the students. Willie Walters, the head cheerleader, acted as MC for the affair.

On Sept. 21, the student body, accompanied by the girls from Mundelein and St. Xavier Colleges attended the pep rally for the Great Lakes game. The siren again signalled the rooters to assemble and spotlights scanned the area throughout the proceedings. Three football players gave short speeches expressing their feelings about the upcoming ballgame.

The last rally, held Friday evening before the DePauw game, showed less attendance but just as much spirit. The main speaker of the evening was Fr. John Lefko, the new college treasurer, who sparked the rally with some humor.

Vets. Offer Mass For Bill Becker As First of Series

The Father Falter Veterans Club of St. Joseph's paid tribute to Bill Becker, a recently deceased member of the college student body, by attending Mass and Communion on Tuesday morning, Sept. 25.

The Mass said by Fr. Leonard J. Kostka, himself a veteran, was the first in a series of monthly Masses which the Veterans Club plans to attend during the present school year. The special intention of each Mass will vary and will be in accordance with some aspect of college life at St. Joseph's.

Another new feature of the Veterans Club will be the showing of motion pictures dealing with a variety of subjects before closed meetings of the club and before the student body whenever the proper arrangements can be made. Commander Ted Thomas has announced that the movie HIGHLIGHTS OF THE CHICAGO BEARS OF 1955 will initiate this new program.

St. Joe students are joined by Mundelein and Xavier girls to cheer the Pumas onto victory at the pep rally before the Great Lakes game. The main speaker for the evening was Fr. Edward Maziarz, college dean. Backed by the spirit shown by the girls, as well as the students, the football squad went on to pound out a 29 to 0 win.

Leonard Addresses Club

During the business meeting William Leonard briefed the new members on the activities and policies of the club. There followed a short rehearsal of the newly formed 64 man singing group.

Concerts for the first semester will include concerts in Chicago and Whiting as well as home engagements. More details will be available in future issues of STUFF.

Qubeck Writes Dad's Day Skit

One of the highlights of the day was the halftime program put on by the band. The program began with a short address by Fr. Raphael Gross, president of the college, and was followed by a musical tribute to the dads. The skits, or pantomimes, were written by Mr. Bernard Qubeck, director of the band, and depicted the influence of a dad on his child.

The game was followed by refreshments for everyone in the Rec Hall.

A greased-pig chase was one of the highlights of this year's frosh initiation. Freshmen turned out in force to take part in the event, which was one of the last group activities before the close of initiation. The sophomores ended the "trial period" early this year because "it had fulfilled its purpose in integrating the freshmen with the rest of the student body."

Council Hopes To Buy False Ceiling For Use at Dances

Other reports given at the meeting were:

1. Athletic chairman Ray Goberville reported that $1226 was spent in financing the student trip to Cincinnati for the Xavier football game.

2. Chairman John Bian of the Welfare Committee reported that a bus was available to all students returning for the start of the term by rail.

3. Treasurer Ray Goberville announced that the financial statement of the Student Council for the second semester of 1955-56 school year would be published in this issue of STUFF.

New business presented to the Council consisted of:

1. Glenn Murphy was approved as chairman of the Disciplinary Committee.

2. The Council approved the appropriation of $850 to the sophomore class for Homecoming expenses.

3. Ray Goberville was appointed to obtain tickets for the Valparaiso University-St. Joseph's game on Oct. 6.

4. The Council approved Rich Flynn's motion that the date of the Fall Frolic be eliminated from the social calendar.

5. The Council decided that an informal dance would be held on the Friday night preceding Homecoming.

Brother Dave Closes Barber Shop, Hangs Up Tools After 54 Years Work

by Tom Mahoney

The proprietor of St. Joseph's barbershop for more than a half century has reluctantly put away his tonsorial tools and closed up shop.

"Had to," explains Brother David Schneider, who has been trimming hair in these parts since 1902. "Getting too hard to keep my arm up there." Brother Dave lifted up his right arm to show he could still manipulate it, but the strain was showing in his face.

Starts Cutting in 1902

"I learned to cut hair in 1902," he said. "The barber at the time quit, and Fr. Seifert (first president of the school) gave me the job." I charged a quarter for a haircut and shave at the time." Brother Dave's prices didn't match the rise in the cost of living during the years, for he never did charge any higher than 50 cents, his price when he closed down this year. However, he stopped giving shaves when safety razors and electric shavers had taken away most of his business.

David Schneider arrived in America from his native Germany in 1894, and soon thereafter entered the seminary at Carthage, Ohio to study for the priesthood. A year later he came to St. Joe, which was then comprised, he recalls, of about 150 students. He continued his studies until 1899, when he dropped them to become a barber. He worked as a printer until 1902, when he took his solemn promise as a brother, and also assumed his duties as a barber.

Plays 19th Century Football

Since that time, several places have served as his barbershop, including the Administration Building, which was his original shop, the old gymnasium, which was destroyed by fire in 1914, and Gaspar Hall. His familiar room in the basement of Science Hall served as his shop from 1938 on. It has now been reconverted into an office for Mr. James Farrell, new instructor in English.

In his younger days Brother Dave was quite active in athletics. He played football in 1899, and just two years ago received a sweater and monogram "J" from the Monogram club. Brother wears the sweater with pride, and calls receiving it "one of my greatest thrills."

Basketball arrived here too late for him to participate as a student, since it was not introduced until the turn of the century. Still he worked out regularly on the courts with the priests and students, and jovially recalls giving one of the good fathers a "bloody nose" in a scrap for a rebound. He also played baseball, then, as now, on an inter-hall basis. Brother competed with the seminarians' team against the other students. "And we did pretty well against them," he adds with emphasis.

Lauds Bears, Pumas

Brother Dave still retains an ardent interest in sports. "I've got a season pass for the Chicago Bears home games, and I'll get in to see a couple of games if the weather permits me," he says. He confidentially predicts that the Bears will win the NFL championship, and that the Pumas will do equally well in the ICC title race.

Staff States Work Begun on '57 Phase

photography editor remains unfilled. In the financial end, Bernie Balas, a senior from Gary will succeed to the role of business manager.

The staff is now at work on the 1957 book. Questionnaires have been distributed to seniors and photographic appointments are being made.

Bishop Advocates Spirit and Student

if the student does not respond. And the student will not respond to this aid, advised Bishop Carberry, unless he has made a place for the Holy Spirit in his individual life.

Bishop Carberry graduated from Cathedral College in Brooklyn in 1924. He also studied as a theological student at the Pontifical University of the Propagation of the Faith in Rome, and as a graduate student of Canon Law at Catholic University, Washington, D.C.

The Bishop's other activities include time with the Canon Law Society of America and the Mariological Society of America, and his years as assistant chancellor in the Trenton diocese.

His cutting equipment, which he used for the last time on Fr. Alloysius Feldhaus, is now being used by the seminarians in Xavier Hall. "I wish I could keep right on cutting," he says, "but I guess I'm not getting any younger."

Would Do It Again

Would he do it all over again the same way? "I've been very happy and have gotten along well with everybody," he replies with a smile. "Yes, I would do it over again. I'm very glad I came here."

Two generations of St. Joe men are also very glad he came here. To them, Brother Dave Schneider, with his never-ceasing smile and cheerful word for all, has become a symbol of the truth and goodness of these lands dedicated to St. Joseph.

Bishop Marling Given New Post

Bishop Joseph M. Marling, an alumnus of St. Joe and brother of Brother John Marling, was appointed Bishop of the newly established diocese of Jefferson City, Mo., last month. For the last nine years, since his consecration in 1947, he had served as auxiliary to Bishop O'Hara of Kansas City.

The Bishop went to school here from 1918 to 1923 and has always been deeply interested in St. Joseph's College. He instigated a building program in 1939. During his administration, the halls Seifert, Merlini, Xavier and the Fieldhouse were built.

After his ordination in 1929, Bishop Marling attended the Catholic University in Washington, where after studying he taught Philosophy until 1938. He then was cious Blood priests until 1947 when he was consecrated Bishop.

Bishop Marling is the second Precious Blood priest to be consecrated Bishop, and he is the only Bishop of this order living in America. The first Precious Blood priest to be made Bishop was Bishop Dwenger (1837-1893), who donated the land where St. Joseph's College is located.

Brother Dave turns the key in the lock for the last time as he closes his barbershop after 54 years of service.

Chicago Club To Hold Dance

St. Joseph's Chicago Club has chosen the evening of Nov. 22 for its annual Thanksgiving dance. Club members and their guests will dance to the music of Mike Sullivan's orchestra at Chicago's Del Prado Hotel.

This year's Christmas dance will be held in the M. and M Club of Chicago's Merchandise Mart. As usual, the club plans to have four dances during the year.

Parents Refurnish New Faculty Lounge

installed by our own crew and another entrance was built.

The fieldhouse was given a new roof at a cost of $3600. This work was also done by the college and completed last month.

Cushioned kneelers were installed in the chapel for $860. The cost was handled by the Student Council and Fr. Schaefer.

The greatest cost incurred in the campus improvement plan was that of a new dishwashing room. A total of $48,000 was spent in completely modernizing the kitchen room.

Repair Roads and Lots

Campus roads were widened and restoned and parking lots were oiled to eliminate some of the dust as another part of the five-year plan. This project was done at $5475.

Final in the list of remodeling jobs was the refurnishing of the faculty lounge in the Administration Building. The combined Parents Clubs defrayed this cost of $5000.

Fr. John Lefko, college treasurer, was for the most part in charge of the remodeling programs.

Frs. Klopke, Druhman, and Hinton enjoy a between-class break in the newly refurnished faculty lounge. Remodeling of the lounge was recently completed with the addition of furniture donated by the Fathers and Mothers Clubs.

INTRAMURAL SCOREBOARD

by Tom Uecker

St. Joseph's intramural program officially opened last Monday, Oct. 1, with the touch football season. The fall program this year also includes a singles and doubles tennis tournament, a golf tourney, and a horseshoe contest. Bowling will start early this year, probably around Nov. 1.

Entry points for the All-Sports trophy will be based upon the number of students from a hall participating in a sport, in proportion to the number of students living in that hall. This new system was devised to encourage the larger halls to field more teams, and to get a greater number of students to participate in the intramural program.

Seventeen touch football teams were entered in this year's competition, which is the greatest number ever to play in an intramural football league here at St. Joseph's. The teams this year are divided into two leagues: an eight-team freshman league, and a nine-team upperclassman league. For the playoff at the end of the season, however, the teams will all participate in one tourney.

Upperclassman League		Freshman League
Bearcats	(Merlini)	Knights of St. Gaspar	(Gaspar)
Manglers	(Merlini)	Knights	(Dorm)
Gamokes	(Noll)	Unknowns	(Drexel)
Chi. Left-Overs	(W. Seifert)	Cellar Dwellers	(Ad Bldg)
Lions	(Bennett)	Rustlers	(Dorm)
7-Ups	(W. Seifert)	Larry's Loafers	(Ad Bldg)
Pumacats	(Bennett)	Dorm Amoebas	(Dorm)
Trojans	(W. Seifert)	Dungeon Keepers	(Ad Bldg)
Seven-Sevens	(E. Seifert)

The tennis and golf tournaments show that quite a few students are interested in these sports, and plans are being formulated for a tennis and golf instruction course to be held in the spring. An inter-hall track and field meet is also being planned. This will be held, weather permitting, about May 1.

Some 290 students have signed up for the fall program already, which shows that participation should be at an all time high at St. Joe this year. The intramural department's goal is to have every student active in at least one sport.

All intramural announcements will be posted on the bulletin board in the cafeteria.

ICC Names Jancich to All-Stars

Greg Jancich has been named to the 1956 All-Conference baseball team by the Awards Committee of the Indiana Collegiate Conference. Jancich, pitcher, was chosen on the strength of his impressive 1.70 earned run average, compiled over a span of 37 innings. His conference won-lost record was one win against two setbacks.

Jancich, one of the three pitchers selected for the 11-man team, was the only St. Joe player on the honor squad. Valparaiso had the biggest representation with four players, while Evansville placed two men on the squad. Each of the other teams in the conference was represented once.

St. Joe To Face Valparaiso In First Big Hurdle To Crown Varsity Views

by Tom Donahue

Hats off to Coach Bob Jauron and his 1956 football squad. They went into the opening game of the season against Xavier of Cincinnati as 44 point underdogs and it took every thing Xavier had to squeeze out a last second victory. The Cincinnati press had nothing but praise for St. Joe. It went into the record book as a victory for Xavier, but the 9,000 home fans who attended the game weren't convinced. Nice going, guys.

Coach Mick Connolly of Xavier had scheduled his boys for a ball game with Great Lakes in October but when he heard reports that they were stocking up with professional talent he called the contest off. This leaves us wondering what went thru Mr. Connolly's mind when he learned that St. Joe scuttled the sailors 29-0.

There is room for improvement in the attendance at the pep rallies. If the freshman are given to believe that the rest of the student body is indifferent to these affairs then they will be quick to pick up this attitude with the result that the whole purpose of these rallies, to get the whole student body assembled at one time and let the team know that they are behind them all the way, will be defeated. Let's all try and be out there from now on.

It seems that the teams to beat in the ICC conference this fall are Evansville and Valparaiso. Both looked impressive in recent victories, Evansville taking DePauw 21-13 and Valpo downing Kalamazoo by a 7-6 count. But there is a team named St. Joseph in the conference that bears watching also.

The student body will make their second student trip of the season on Oct. 6 when the Pumas challenge the Valparaiso Crusaders at nearby Valparaiso.

The Crusaders, third-place finishers in the ICC in 1955, will be led by quarterback Gordy Helms, who possesses a three-year offensive total of over 2500 yards. Flanking Helms in the backfield will be co-captain Ken Schreiber and letterman Paul Neuman at halfback and fullback Floyd Henderson.

Valpo Seeks Revenge

The Crusaders are sparked in the line by guard and co-captain Chuck Dhoogs and all-conference end Chuck O'Brien. Valparaiso will be out to avenge last year's 26-0 upset at the hands of the Pumas.

Following the Valpo game the Pumas return home Oct. 13 to host the Indiana State Sycamores at the Rensselaer High School field in a night game.

15 Lettermen At State

The Sycamore's head coach Mark Dean, returning after a year's leave of absence, has 15 lettermen to lead his 1956 squad. Among this year's array of returnees are backs Bob Wilbur and Bill Griffith, who helped to set 10 new ICC team records for State last season.

The Pumas whipped the Sycamores last year 27-0 in a rugged contest at Terre Haute.

Shemky Assumes Duties As New Baseball Coach

Robert Shemky

Robert Shemky is the new intramural director and baseball coach at St. Joseph's College. In addition, he is an instructor in Physical Education and serves as assistant football coach.

He succeeds Mr. James Beane, who resigned last year to enter the field of Industrial Recreation.

Compiles Winning Record

Mr. Shemky comes to St. Joe from a two-year coaching assignment at Mount Clemens High School, Mich. Previous to that he had coached for two years each at Norbortine High School in Green Bay, Wis., and Westbury High School in Long Island, N.Y.

In six years of coaching he has compiled a 27-20-1 record in football and a 20-9 record in baseball.

The new coach received both his Bachelor of Science (1947) and Master of Education (1955) degrees at the University of Michigan. While in college he played football and basketball.

Serves With Air Force

His studies were interrupted by three and a half years of military service, which he spent with the 7th Air Force Intelligence Corps in Honolulu. After returning and completing his A.B., he joined the University of Michigan football staff and served as freshman line coach for one year.

Mr. Shemky, who was born in Crystal Falls, Mich., is married and has three daughters; Nancy, 5; Ann Marie, 3; and Mary, 2. Mrs. Shemky is the former Jean Aeschliman. The family is living in Rensselaer.

Post Picks St. Joe As One of Best

The Sept. 8 issue of the Saturday Evening Post featured the magazine's annual "Pigskin Preview" in which a host of the nation's foremost football experts predicted who the top college grid squads would be for the 1956 season.

Notre Dame and Marquette as well as the Big Ten schools remained the teams to beat in the Middle West. Among the "Best of the Rest" in this section of the country, St. Joseph's was rated first in the I.C.C. being favored over last year's co-champion Evansville, Butler, DePauw and Valparaiso.

Pumas Absorb Last Min. Loss At Xavier, 13-8

The Pumas just missed rocking the midwest with a stunning upset over heralded Xavier Sunday, Sept. 16. The desperate Musketeers struck through the air in the last 55 seconds to edge St. Joseph's, 13-8.

Coach Bob Jauron's relatively young, small squad appeared not to have heard that they were a 44 point underdog in their 1956 season opener at Cincinnati as they proceeded to dominate the entire first half, which was almost all played in Xavier territory. The scoreless first half left some 10,000 spectators, including some 400 noisy St. Joseph's rooters, stunned.

Open Half With Safety

The first 10 seconds of the second half proved even more startling when Xavier fullback Bob Konkoly, the big thorn in the Puma side all night, fumbled the kickoff and recovered himself in the end zone under a swarm of charged-up Puma tacklers for a safety.

Midway in the third quarter the Pumas took possession on their own 43, whence they promptly marched to paydirt in seven plays, spearheaded by Ralph Tite's two passes totaling 50 yards. Tite went Halfback Keith Fingerhut is pulled down by Middies after ripping off a short gain in St. Joseph's 29-0 romp over Great Lakes. Ed Labbe (27) prepares to take out last defenseman should Fingerhut break free. The Pumas' defensive play was the highlight of their home opener.

Pumas Romp in 29-0 Win Over Great Lakes Navy

St. Joseph's College made a success of their home opener Sunday, Sept. 23, as they literally ran through the star-studded Great Lakes team for a resounding 29-0 victory.

Actually the statistics give the story in a nutshell: St. Joseph's piled up 261 yards rushing to -13 for Great Lakes; St. Joseph's piled up a total of 308 yards to 18 for Great Lakes; and St. Joseph's chalked up 21 first downs compared to two for Great Lakes.

Methodically grinding out yardage on the ground, the Pumas chalked up two TD's in the second quarter, while the reserves scored two more in the fourth, once through the air. The scoring drives went for 48, 47, 47, and 74 yards.

Tite Scores First

Led by halfbacks Norb Daigle and Bob Hamman, the Pumas drove for their first score in eight plays, with quarterback Ralph Tite going over from the five. Jerry Selinger's try for the extra point was no good.

Several minutes later the Pumas took a Blugjacket punt and systematically ground out their second score, going 48 yards in 12 plays. Keith Fingerhut traveled the last five yards and Dick Hagye converted.

In the third quarter Great Lakes took a punt on their own 31, but two penalties pushed them back to the 11. On the next play a swarm of St. Joseph tacklers smeared quarterback Terry Trisel in the end zone, giving the Pumas a 15-0 lead at the end of the third quarter.

Pass For Third TD

St. Joseph's reserves took the following kickoff and, led by Ray Banary, drove for a touchdown in seven plays, climaxed by a fourth down, 20-yard touchdown pass from Banary to Ed Labbe. Hagye's conversion was good and the Pumas led, 22-0.

At this point Coach Bob Jauron cleared the Puma bench and his reserves completely dominated the ball in the final quarter, with Paul Scherschel terminating the long 74-yard drive by plunging over from the four. Hagye again converted for the final score—St. Joseph's 29, Great Lakes 0.

over from the one-yard stripe for the score. The try for the point was no good, but the Pumas led with five minutes left in the third quarter, 8-0.

Xavier Pass Wins Game

The Musketeers, sensing defeat, then took the kickoff and marched straight over the Puma goal in 12 plays, the score coming in the first minute of the final stanza. The extra point was good and Xavier trailed by one.

With six minutes to play, Xavier took possession on their own 15. From here they scored in 13 plays, the 85-yard drive being climaxed by the Musketeer quarterback Roger Bertoia's 10-yard TD toss to end Steve Junker. The attempted conversion was wide, but Xavier had pulled it out of the fire, 13 to 8.

Reader's Digest $41,000 CONTEST

Open to All College Students (Faculty, too!)

Nothing to buy...nothing to write

...and you may find you know more about people than you think!

How well do you know human nature? Can you tell what subjects interest people most? Here is a chance to test your judgment—show how good an editor you are—and you may win $5,000 for yourself, plus $5,000 in scholarship funds for your college.

It's fun to try. Maybe you can top other students in colleges across the country... and you can match wits with the editors of Reader's Digest.

Why do far more college graduates read Reader's Digest than any other magazine? What is it that makes the Digest the most widely read magazine in the world—with 11 million copies bought each month in the United States, plus 9 million abroad? Why is it read each month by at least 60 million people, in 12 languages—Arabic, Danish, English, Finnish, French, German, Italian, Japanese, Norwegian, Portuguese, Spanish and Swedish?

Can you spot in a typical issue of Reader's Digest the universal human values that link scholars, statesmen, scientists, writers, businessmen, housewives? Can you pick out the articles that will be most popular with the average Digest reader?

You may find...you know more about people than you think!

Here's all you do. Study the descriptions (at right) of the articles in the October Reader's Digest—or, better still, read the complete articles in the issue itself. (But you are not required to buy The Reader's Digest to enter the contest.) Then simply list the six articles—in order of preference—that you think readers of the magazine will like best. This will be compared with a nationwide survey conducted among a cross section of Digest subscribers.

Follow the directions given below. Fill in the entry blank, paste it on a post card, and get it into the mail before the deadline. Additional blanks are obtainable at your college bookstore.

All entries must be postmarked not later than midnight, October 25, 1956. Don't delay. In case of ties, the entry with the earliest postmark will win.

Just pick in order the six articles you think most readers of October
Reader's Digest will like the best.
